Should there be an exigent situation requiring immediate notifications, both the Inform-a-Cast and RAVE systems are available to alert students, faculty, staff, and visitors. The college will also use social media postings advising of problems and providing instructions.

While we strive to maintain the integrity of the college, we would also like to remind you that good security is everyone's responsibility. Practicing good common-sense security precautions in your everyday life is the best way to avoid issues. Statistics are compiled in accordance with the Uniform Crime Reporting System of the Department of Justice and the Federal Bureau of Investigation,

Campus crime, arrest and referral statistics include those reported to Campus Safety, designated campus officials (including Office of Student Life, Office of Human Resources, Offices of Academic Affairs), and local law enforcement entities. Crimes are reported that occur on campus, on locations that are contiguous to the campus, and buildings or properties that are either owned or controlled by a campus affiliated entity, including officially recognized student organizations. Please see the College map herein for the boundaries of crime reporting in accordance with the Clery Act.

Campus policy encourages every member of the campus community to report a crime promptly to Campus Safety, campus security authorities, or local law enforcement. A procedure is in place to capture crime statistics which are disclosed anonymously to Campus Safety or the Wellness Center

Each year, notification is made to all enrolled students, faculty and staff that provides the web site to access this report. Copies of the report may also be obtained at the Campus Security office at each of the three campuses. All prospective students may obtain a copy by calling Campus Safety or by visiting the web site. All prospective employees may obtain a copy by calling Campus Safety or the Office of Human Resources or be visiting the above web site.

If you are a victim to a crime and you do not want to pursue action within the College's discipline system or the criminal justice system, you may still want to consider making a confidential report.

The purpose of an anonymous report is to comply with your wishes to keep the matter confidential, while taking steps to ensure the future safety of yourself and others. With this information, the College can keep an accurate record of the number of incidents involving students, faculty, and staff, determine where there is a pattern of crime relative to location, method, and assailant and alert the campus community to potential harm. Anonymous reports are counted and disclosed in the annual crime statistics for the campus. Please understand while the crime is counted for statistical purposes, confidential reporting of a crime may impede a speedy investigation and/or a thorough investigation or it may prohibit an investigation in its entirety.

Emergency Response and Evacuation Procedures-Immediate Notification

If there is an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or students or employees occurring on campus, the College Emergency Notification System will communicate what action to take. The methods of communication are as follows:

Text message through the RAVE Mobile Alert system registered

College Web Site: <http://www.ecc.edu/>

College Monitors

Public Address System

A follow up notification will occur when further information is available on the status of the situation, and when it is safe to return.

Significant Emergency or Dangerous Situation

Upon receiving information of a significant emergency or dangerous situation, to confirm the report. If the responding officer determines that the report is a significant emergency or dangerous situation, they will notify the proper local agency as soon as practical to advise of the situation. The Director of Security will determine the appropriate segment of the campus community to notify. The Director of Security and the Public Information Officer will determine the content of the notification and will withhold the names of the victims as confidential. The Director of Security will initiate the notification system.

Disseminating Emergency Information to Large Community

In the event of a significant emergency or dangerous situation occurring on the ECC Campus which could have a potential impact on the surrounding community.

Campus Safety will notify the local police department of the potential impact of the surrounding community

The Public Information Officer will act as the College's liaison with the media.

Testing the Emergency Response System (RAVE)

Campus Safety will annually conduct an emergency test of the College's emergency response system. The test may be announced or unannounced. The College's emergency notification system will indicate that the drill is a test only. A debriefing will be held following the annual test to follow through on any corrects necessary. Campus will determine the type of test to be conducted on an annual basis. Campus Safety will notify the Public Information Officer, College administrators, and the local police agency prior to conducting the test to ensure they are aware the test is not a real event.

Weapons

Lethal weapons of any type (handguns, rifles, shotguns, knives, etc.) are NOT permitted on campus. Possession of a New York State pistol permit does not allow you the privilege of carrying a weapon while you are on ECC grounds. Possession of such weapons on campus can lead to disciplinary action by the Vice President of Student Services, or criminal charges, in the case of illegal weapons.

Critical Incident Response Procedures

The College maintains and tests a Critical Incident Response Plan (CIRP) utilizes the communications methods noted in the "Timely Warnings and Emergency Notifications to the Campus community" section below. The RAVE Emergency Notification System is a primary communications method. The system is tested at least annually. Prior to each annual test notification is sent to the community announcing when the test will occur, delineating the parameters of the test, advising the community how to participate in the RAVE Alert program and advising the community how and where to comment on the testing process.

Timely Warnings and emergency Notifications to the Campus Community

What warrants a "timely warning" or "emergency notification"?

Timely Warnings shall be issued whenever a Clery Crim that is considered to represent a serious or continuing threat to students and employees is reported to CDS or a local policy agency and has occurred within ECC's Clery Geography. Whenever a timely warning is sent it shall best to the entire community,

Emergency Notifications shall be issued when a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees occur on the campus. As appropriate, emergency notifications may be targeted at only a segment or segments of the campus community that is at risk. Emergency Notifications will be issued without delay unless doing so would compromise efforts to assist a victim or to contain, response to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

The Director of Campus safety, or in his/her absence a designee, in conjunction with the President of the College and/or other campus and on-campus officials as appropriate, shall confirm the existence of a situation that may warrant a warning or notification and determine if a timely warning or emergency notification is warranted and the extend of the notification as appropriate. In addition to criminal incidents emergency notifications may be issued in situations such as, but not limited to:

1: Safety Related Issues:

An incident that occurs on an of our campuses that affects the personal safety and security of our population.

An incident that occurs in close proximity of the College's three campuses that may potentially affect the personal safety and security of our student, faculty and staff populations.

2. Health Related Issues

A member of our population is diagnosed with a serios or life threatening communicable/infections disease.

Evidence of bioterrorism.

The only reason of immediate notification for a confirmed emergency or dangerous situation could not be issued is if doing so will compromise efforts to: assist a victim, contain the emergency, respond to the emergency, or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

Ways to communicate these issues:

For Safety Related Issues:

The following methods can be used to get the word out. Methods of communication will be chosen based on the nature of the incident. A decision will be made on notification methods by the Director of Campus Security or their designee.

E-mail to all students and/or faculty/staff

Postings on building monitors

Public address announcement

Delivery of a hard copy notification to all residential suites

Posting of notification on the College web site

RAVE Alert in the case of a critical campus wide emergency

E-mail

For Health-Related Issues:

The following methods can be used to the word out. Methods of communication will be chosen based on the nature of the incident.

*Letters to students and/or parents (communication to parents is extremely minimal, most likely done in cases of measles, mumps, or rubella. VIRAL Meningitis would be communicated to the parents whose students are directly affected.)

*Letters to faculty and staff, if appropriate

*Posting of notification on the College's website at: www.ecc.edu

For information that is believed to be of interest or concern to the entire ECC population, the Senior Vice President of Operations will typically notify the President's Office in advance of sending a campus wide notification.

Campus Security Authorities

ECC has designated certain administrators and staff as "campus security authorities" in recognition that many students, faculty, and staff may be hesitant about reporting about reporting crimes to Camus Safety, and may be more inclined to report incidents to non-law enforcement administration and staff instead.

Campus Security Authorities area charged with reporting to the appropriate law enforcement personnel, either Campus safety, local police, or to any official or office which should be informed of the crime or complaint due to the nature of the crime or complaint, those allegations of Clery Act crimes that the campus security authority concludes are made in good faith. A "campus security authority" is not responsible for determining whether a crime took place as that is the function of Campus Safety or the local police department and its investigatory process.

A campus security authority is required to report all allegations to law enforcement personnel even if the campus security authority was told of a crime in the context of providing emotional support or healthy care support. The allegations will be reported whether or not the victim chooses to file a report with Campus Safety, local law enforcement, or to any official or office which should be informed of the crime or complaint.

Advocates and mental health counselors at the College are not campus security authorities and are therefore exempt from disclosing or reporting allegations of crimes and incidents. However, to be exempt from the Clery act reporting requirements, the counselor must be acting in their professional role of mental health counselors at the College. For example, a Vice President who has a PhD on psychology is not acting in the counseling role, but rather as a Vice President; and a PhD student in psychology working in the counseling center as part of his/her education and training is acting in the counseling role. Advocates and mental health counselors are trained in the procedures for reporting crimes and the procedures for reporting crimes confidentially. The College encourages them to inform their clients of the procedures in accordance with their professional judgement, given the individual victim and circumstances before them.

Erie Community College designates the following as " Campus Security Authorities:"

- *Vice President of Student Services
- *Vice President of Academic Affairs
- *Senior staff in Human Resources
- *Academic Advisors
- *Faculty advisors
- *Professional staff in Athletics including coaches
- *Supervisor of College Nursing Services

Security of Campus Buildings

Campus Buildings, academic and Non-Academic

Most campus facilities are open to the public during the day and evening hours when classes are in session. The general public is encouraged to attend cultural, athletic, and other activities on campus with access limited to the facilities in which the events take place.

At night and during periods of time when classes are not in session, College buildings are generally locked. Administration and essential personnel with appropriately issued keys and access cards are allowed access to the buildings. Campus employees with essential positions are issued keys. They are responsible for reporting missing and stolen keys.

Campus Security Programs and Procedures

Safety and security on campus is built on a strong foundation that includes:

- 1: Community Policing. Campus Safety strives to develop and maintain a positive relationship with all members of the ECC family with a supportive community-oriented approach to law enforcement.
2. Individual Responsibility. Every member of the College community is responsible for his/her own safety by taking simple, common-sense precautions and reporting incidents to the police and other campus authorities.

Sexual Misconduct/VAWA/ (Violence against Women Act) Notice

Erie Community College is committed to creating and maintaining an educational environment free from all forms of sex discrimination, including sexual misconduct. Any act involving sexual harassment, violence, coercion, and intimidation will not be tolerated. Specifically, ECC strictly prohibits the offenses of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking. These acts have a real impact on the lives of victims. They not only violate a person's feelings of trust and safety, but they can also substantially interfere with a student's education. It is the policy of SUNY and ECC that, upon learning that an act of sexual misconduct has taken place, immediate action will be taken to address the situation and punish the perpetrator. This includes working with State and local law enforcement to bring possible criminal charges, seeking disciplinary action through the College, and enforcing mandatory transcript notifications so other institutions are on notice of the offense committed. ECC encourages the reporting of sexual misconduct that is prompt and accurate. This allows the ECC community to quickly respond to allegations and offer immediate support to the victim. ECC is committed to protecting the confidentiality of victims and will work closely with students who wish to obtain confidential assistance regarding an incident of sexual misconduct. Certain professionals at the College are permitted by law to offer confidentiality. Those who do not maintain the privilege to offer confidentiality are expected to keep reports private to the extent permitted under the law and College policy. This means that they may have to report to college officials but will not broadcast the information beyond what is required by law and policy. All allegations will be investigated promptly and thoroughly, and both the victim and the accused will be afforded equitable rights during the investigative process.

It is the collective responsibility of all members of the ECC community to foster a safe and secure campus environment. In an effort to promote this environment and prevent acts of sexual misconduct from occurring, ECC engages in ongoing prevention and awareness education programs. All members of the ECC community must participate in ongoing campaigns and trainings focused on the prevention of sexual misconduct on campus.

This policy applies to all members of the ECC community, including students, faculty, staff, visitors, independent contractors, and other third parties who are on campus and involved in an incident of sexual misconduct (this can be someone who witnessed an incident or who wishes to report an incident on behalf of another). This policy applies to these parties regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity.

This policy prohibits all forms of sexual misconduct. This broad term includes, but is not limited to, acts of sexual harassment, sexual violence, sexual coercion, sexual threats or intimidation, domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, and cyber-stalking.

Students' Bill of Rights

Reporting:

To disclose confidentially the incident to one of the following college officials, who by law may maintain confidentiality, and can assist in obtaining services.

Anonymous Sexual Assault Report-If you do not wish to file a police report or a College incident report an anonymous sexual assault (ASA) report can be filed. An ASA report is a completely anonymous report to ECC Campus Security. The report is used to gather data on sexual assault to create a more effective response to survivors.

The Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act of 1990 (Clery Act), the Higher Education Amendments of 1992 and 1998, the Violent Crime and Law Enforcement Act of 1994 (Violence Against Women Act, and the Title IX require that colleges and universities provide information concerning programs to prevent sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking; and the procedures that they will follow if an incident of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, dating violence and stalking has been reported.

You have the right to make a report to the Campus Security Department, local law enforcement, and/or State Police or choose not to report; to report the incident to your institution; to be protected by the institution from retaliation for reporting an incident; and to receive assistance and resources from your institution.

Policy for alcohol and/or drug use Amnesty in Sexual and Interpersonal Violence.

The health and safety of every student at the State University of New York and its State-operated and community colleges is of utmost importance. Erie Community College (ECC) recognizes that students who have been drinking and/or use drugs (whether such use is voluntary or involuntary) at the time that the violence, including but not limited to domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault occurs may be hesitant to report such incidents due to fear of potential consequences for their own conduct. ECC strongly encourages students to report incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault to institution officials. A bystander acting in good faith or a reporting individual acting in good faith that discloses any incident of domestic violence will not be subject to ECC's code of conduct action for violations of alcohol and/or drug use policies occurring at or near the time of the commission of the domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault.

Note: This policy covers personal drug use whether intentional or accidental. There is no amnesty for drug sale, distribution, or for drugging another individual.

Prevention Efforts

ECC attempts to foster a safe living, learning, and working environments for all members of the campus community. To accomplish this, ECC considers the educational programming that addresses all aspects of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking (safety precautions and prevention, reporting, medical and counseling services, the ECC discipline systems, academic schedules, living arrangement, etc.) the campus response to sexual violence, domestic violence, dating violence, and domestic instances of stalking, and physical surroundings throughout the campus community.

Sexual Offender Registry

The Sex Offender Registration Act requires the Division of Criminal Justice Services (DCJS) to maintain a Sex Offender Registry. The Registry contains information on sex offenders classified according to their risk of -re-offending: low-risk (Level 1), moderate-risk (Level 2) and high-risk (Level 3). The Act requires that the Division also maintain a Subdirectory of Level 3 Sex Offenders. The DCJS Sex Offender Registry site may be found on the web and contains their Subdirectory of Level 3 Sex Offenders as well as other information regarding New York State's Sex Offender Registry.

Sex offenders registered in New York are now required to notify the Registry of any institution of higher education at which he or she is, or expects to be, whether for compensation or not, enrolled, attending, or employed, and whether such sex offender resides or expects to reside in a facility operated by the institution. Changes in status at the institution of higher education must also be reported to the Registry no later than ten days after such change.

The Divisional of Criminal Justice Services' Sex Offender Registry may be found at:

Risk Reduction Tips

With no intent to victim blame and recognizing that only rapists are responsible for rape, the following are some strategies to reduce one's risk of sexual assault or harassment.

Be aware of your surroundings. Knowing where you are and who is around you may help you find a way to get out of a bad situation.

Try to avoid isolated areas. It is more difficult to get help if no one is around.

Walk with purpose. Even if you don't know where you are going, act like you do.

Trust your instincts. If a situation or location feels unsafe or uncomfortable, it probably isn't the best place to be.

Try not to load yourself down with packages or bags as this can make you appear more vulnerable.

Make sure your cell phone is with you and charged and that you have cab money.

Don't allow yourself to be isolated with someone you don't trust or someone you don't know.

Avoid putting music headphones in both ears so you can be more aware of your surroundings, especially if you are walking alone.

When you go to a social gathering, go with a group of friends. Arrive together, check in with each other throughout the evening, and leave together. Knowing where you are and who is around you may help you find a way out of a bad situation.

If you feel unsafe in any situation, go with your gut instinct. If you see something suspicious, contact law enforcement immediately (local law enforcement can be reached by dialing 9-1-1 in most areas of the U.S.).

Don't leave your drink unattended while talking, dancing, using the restroom, or making a phone call. If you've left your drink unattended, get a new one.

Don't accept drinks from people you don't know or trust. If you choose to accept a drink, go with the person to the bar to order it, watch it being poured, and carry it yourself. At parties, don't drink from the punch bowls or other large, common open containers.

Watch out for your friends and vice versa. If a friend seems out of it, is way too intoxicated for the amount of alcohol they've had, or is acting out of character, get him or her to a safe place immediately.

If you suspect you or a friend has been drugged, contact law enforcement immediately (local law enforcement can be reached by calling 9-1-1 in most areas of the U.S.). Be explicit with doctors so they can give you the correct tests.

If you need to get out of an uncomfortable or scary situation here are some things that you can try:

Remember that being in this situation is not your fault. You did not do anything wrong it is the person who is making your uncomfortable that is to blame.

Be true to yourself. Don't feel obligated to do anything you don't want to do. "I don't want to" is always a good enough reason. Do what feels right to you and with what you're comfortable with.

Have code word with your friends or family so that if you don't feel comfortable you can call them and communicate your discomfort without the person you are with knowing. Your friends or family can then come to get you or make up an excuse for you to leave.

Lie. If you don't want to hurt the person's feelings it is better to lie and make up a reason to leave than to stay and be uncomfortable, scared, or worse. Some excuses you could use are needing to take care of a friend or family member, not feeling well, having somewhere else you need to be etc.

Try to think of an escape route. How would you try to get out of the room? Where are the doors? Windows? Are there people around who might be able to help you? Is there an emergency phone nearby?

If you and/or the other person have been drinking, you can say that you would rather wait until you both have your full judgment before doing anything you may regret later.

Definitions – Clery Violence Against Women Act

Clery Definitions

Dating Violence

Dating violence is any act of violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship or a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the victim's statement with consideration of the type and length of the relationship and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship. Two people may be in a romantic or intimate relationship. Regardless of whether the relationship is sexual in nature; however, neither a casual acquaintance nor ordinary fraternization between two individuals in a business or social context shall constitute a romantic or intimate relationship. This definition does not include acts covered under domestic violence.

Domestic Violence

Domestic violence is any violent felony or misdemeanor crime committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, a person sharing a child with the victim, or a person cohabitating with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner.

Stalking

The term stalking means intentionally engaging in a course of conduct, directed at a specific person, which is likely to cause a reasonable person to fear for his or her safety or the safety of others or cause that person to suffer substantial emotional damage. Examples include, but are not limited to, repeatedly following such person(s), repeatedly committing acts that alarm, cause fear, or seriously annoy such other person(s) and that serve no legitimate purpose, and repeatedly communicating by any means, including electronic means, with such person(s) in a manner likely to intimidate, annoy, or alarm him or her.

Consent

Affirmative consent is a knowing voluntary, and mutual decision among all participants to engage in sexual activity. Consent can be given by words or actions, as long as those words or actions create clear permission regarding willingness to engage in the sexual activity. Silence or lack of resistance, in and of itself, does not demonstrate consent. The definition of consent does not vary based upon a participant's sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression.

Consent to any sexual act or prior consensual sexual activity between or with any party does not necessarily constitute consent to any other sexual act.

Consent is required regardless of whether either participant is under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol.

Consent cannot be given when a person is incapacitated, which occurs when an individual lacks the ability to knowingly choose to participate in sexual activity. Incapacitation may be caused by the lack of consciousness or being asleep, being involuntarily restrained, or if an individual otherwise cannot consent. Depending on the degree of intoxication, someone who is under the influence of alcohol, drugs, or other intoxicants may be incapacitated and therefore unable to consent.

Consent cannot be given when it is the result of any coercion, intimidation, force, or threat of harm.

When consent is withdrawn or can no longer be given, sexual activity must stop.

What is Coercion?

Coercion is the using of force, through threats, pressure, begging, blackmail, or incapacitation (alcohol/drugs), in order to get someone to do something and can range from being subtle to obvious.

What you should know about sexual assault

Several studies show that 50 to 60 percent of women surveyed have reported that they were victims of some sort of sexual aggression. One survey of college women indicated that one out of four in this age group had a sexual encounter that would legally constitute a rape. A similar survey of men indicated that one man in twelve admitted to sexual encounters that could be defined as rape, or attempted rape, yet none of these men identified himself as a rapist.

Sexual assaults occur not only between strangers but also between men and women who know each other. Acquaintances rape – sometimes called date rape – is forced, manipulated, or coerced sexual intercourse by a man or woman who is known to the victim. Acquaintance rape occurs all over the country within all socioeconomic and age groups. However, most victims are women between the ages of 15 and 24.

More Facts:

1. Most attacks are not reported. According to surveys on rape, 90 percent of the victims never report it to the authorities. Many victims do not associate an attack as a rape when the rapist is someone they know. In some cases, victims believe they may have caused the rape by consenting to a date, and then getting caught in a compromising situation. They may find it very difficult to report the attacker if he/she has been a friend and may fear that their friends will think he/she "led him on" in some way. Some friends believe their friends will not believe them at all.

2. Victims of acquaintance rape tend to feel ashamed, guilty, and depressed. Whether they acknowledge their experience as a rape or not, 30 percent of women identified in the study of college students as rape victims contemplated suicide after the incident. They feel betrayed and lose confidence in their judgment because they did not recognize the acquaintances as a potential rapist.
3. Acquaintance rape often results from poor communication. Some misunderstand words and actions and assume that when he/she says “no”, it really means “yes”. What a person says and how a person behaves may create conflicting messages. Society has led men and women to believe that a women’s role is to be passive, and a man should be aggressive. Many people feel that a man has a right to be more sexually aggressive. Many people feel that a man has a right to be more sexually aggressive when he has dated a woman for a long time; if they have had previous sexual encounters, or if she has led him on, in some manner.
4. Society further conditions men and women to send strong nonverbal messages about their sexuality by the clothes they wear, the tone of their voice, their body language and dye contact.

How to be an Active Bystander

Bystanders play a critical role in the prevention of sexual and relationship violence. They are individuals who observe violence or witness the conditions that perpetuate violence. They are not directly involved but have the choice to intervene, speak up, or do something about it. We want to promote a culture of community accountability where bystanders are actively engaged in the prevention of violence without causing further harm. We may not always know what to do even if we want to help. Below is a list of some ways to be an active bystander. If you or someone else is in immediate danger, dial 9-1-1. His could be when a person is yelling at or being physically abusive towards another and it is not safe for you to interrupt.

- Watch out for your friends and fellow students/employees. If you see someone who looks like they could be in trouble or need help, ask if they are ok.
- Confront people who seclude, hit on, try to make out with, or have sex with people who are incapacitated.
- Speak up when someone discusses plans to take advantage of another person.
- Believe someone who discloses sexual assault, abusive behavior, or experience with stalking.
- Refer people to on or off campus resources listed in this document for support in health, counseling, or with legal assistance.

Hate or Bias Crimes

Erie Community College strives to protect all members of the college community by prosecuting bias or hate crimes that occur within the campus jurisdiction.

Hate crimes, also called bias crimes or bias-related crimes, are criminal activity motivated by the perpetrator's bias or attitude against an individual victim or group based on perceived or actual personal characteristics, such as national origin, color, race, age, religion or creed, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, veteran status, marital status, or disability. Hate/bias crimes are against the law and ECC's policy. Copies of the New York Law are available at www.ypdcrimes.com/penal.law/article485.htm#p485-00

Penalties for bias-related crimes are very serious and range from fines to imprisonment for lengthy periods, depending on the nature of the underlying criminal offense, the use of violence or previous convictions of the offender. Perpetrators who are students will also be subject to campus disciplinary procedures where sanctions, including dismissal, are possible.

Hate or Bias Related Incidents

In addition to preventing and prosecuting hate/bias crimes, the Vice President of Student Services and Campus Safety may also assist in addressing bias-related activities that do not rise to the level of a crime. These activities, referred to as bias incidents and defined by the College as acts of bigotry, harassment, or intimidation directed at a member or group within Erie Community College's community based on national origin, ethnicity, race, age, religion, gender, sexual orientation, disability, veteran status, color, creed, or marital status, may be addressed through ECC's Student Code of Conduct and College Policy.
