Head Coach Dennis Greene will be entering his ninth season as Kats Head Coach with a career record of 53-28.

Coach Greene was an All-American running back at Hudson Valley Community College and then moved onto Indiana University. He played professionally in the World Football and Canadian Football Leagues.

Coach Greene's coaching experience includes Turner/Carroll High School, University of Pennsylvania, Alfred University and at the University at Buffalo where he served as running backs/special teams coach.

Antwan Burton became the first ECC player ever to play in the NFL when he played versus Oakland in November of 2006.

Program Accomplishments

With a 53-28 record since inception in 2001, the Kats have won the Northeast Conference twice. They appeared in the 2002 Red River Bowl in Bedford, Texas and lost a 27-21 overtime decision to NJCAA national runner-up Northeastern Oklahoma A & M.

The Kats play in the Northeast Football Conference with Nassau CC, Hudson Valley CC, Alfred State College, Lackawanna College and Dean College.

The team has had numerous All-Conference, All-Region and All-American players and have former student-athletes at numerous four-year schools across the country. Recent transfers include, Labinot Hakanjin (UB), Chris Wooten (Florida A & M), Lowell Robinson (Pittsburgh) and Mike Carter (Maryland). Antwan Burton (Temple) signed and played with the Denver Broncos in 2006 and 2007.

In 2009, the team captured its fourth-straight Region III Championship.
