Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99) is a federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education. FERPA gives parents certain rights with respect to their children's education records. These rights transfer to the student when he or she reaches the age of 18 or attends a school beyond the high school level.

How Do I Officially Withdraw from an Advanced Studies Course?

Once you are registered for a course(s), you will not be able to drop the course(s). You will need to follow the steps below to withdraw from a course. You will still be responsible for the tuition for the college credits.

1. Prior to withdrawing, please discuss your concerns and options with your high school teacher.
2. If you decide to withdraw you or your legal guardian must contact the Advanced Studies department via email with a written withdraw statement.
3. Once a course grade has been officially entered into the system a student cannot withdraw from the college credit course.
4. Once you withdraw, you cannot re-join the course.

Are Advanced Studies Courses Transferable?

Advanced Studies credits transfer to most public and private institutions as either major or elective credits. SUNY institutions will accept a SUNY General Education course if the student receives a 'C' or better. Students are encouraged to contact the college of their choice to ensure that the course will be accepted based on their degree program. Colleges may ask for a copy of the course syllabus before transferring credits. Copies should be obtained from the high school teacher.

What is a Transcript and How To Request?

The grade for an Advanced Studies course will be the same as the high school grade and will be included on a college transcript. A transcript is a copy of a student's permanent academic record: courses taken, grades received, honors received, and degrees conferred. Transcripts are either an unofficial student copy (free) or official copy (a charge) that bears the embossed college seal, date, and the Registrar's signature. Transcript request options can be found on the SUNY Erie webpage: <https://www.ecc.edu/academics/transcripts-records.html>. The Registrar office (716-851-1466/1166) highly encourages all students to complete requests through the online clearinghouse Parchment. Please request an official transcript once all courses are complete and grades are entered.
