

Sexual Violence Response Policy

In accordance with the Victims/Survivor Bill of Rights, victims/survivors shall have the right to pursue more than one of the options below at the same time, or choose not to participate in any of the options below:

A. Medical Assistance:

- You may have injuries that aren't evident yet. Get medical attention immediately. Even if you have no physical injuries, immediate medical care is important to reduce the risks of pregnancy or sexually transmitted infections. You do not have to press charges to seek medical attention.
  1. ECMC Emer. Room (716)859-5600. Available 24/7
  2. For ambulatory response, call 911 or Campus Safety (716)851-1133

Health Services	City-Post	Rm. 228	(716)851-1199
Health Services	North- Bldg. S	Rm. 152	(716)851-1499
Health Services	South- Bldg. 5	Rm. 5109	(716)270-5355

Preserve evidence: *Do not shower/bathe. Do not launder clothing or bedding. Do not throw away evidence. To collect evidence, ask the hospital to conduct a rape kit exam. If you suspect you have been drugged, ask for urine sample to be collected.

B. Advocacy Services:

You have a right to report the incident confidentially to one of the following members of the institution and can assist you in obtaining services:

Health Services	City- Post	Room 228	(716)851-1199
Health Services	North- Bldg. S	Room: 152	(716)851-1499

If Someone You Know has been Sexually Assaulted:

Believe them. Listen, be there, support them, and do not be judgemental. Inform them of their options but remember that it is their decision. Be patient. Remember, an assault takes time to process and heal. Let them know that professional help is available. It is not uncommon to experience feelings of shock, disbelief, anger, irritability, depression, embarrassment, and the inability to concentrate or relax.
